XFormity Technologies, Inc. and XPIENT Solutions, LLC Announce Agreement to Integrate XFormity's Business Intelligence Solution with XPIENT's eIntelligence Solution

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--February 12, 2009 07:00 AM Eastern Time-- XFormity Technologies, Inc. (OTCBB: XFMY), a world leader in restaurant analytical and reporting solutions, and XPIENT Solutions LLC, a leading technology solutions provider to the quick service, fast casual and family dining restaurant segments, announced today a partnership between the two companies which will integrate XFormity's enterprise reporting technology with XPIENT's eIntelligence above-store reporting application.

"This agreement provides an unprecedented opportunity for both companies to help restaurant operators benefit from the tight integration of XPIENT's drag-and-drop reporting tools with XFormity's above-restaurant analytical tools," said Chris Ball, President and Chief Executive Officer of XFormity Technologies. "This agreement establishes XFormity's first significant POS sales channel, and launches a new exciting phase for XFormity which will help us extend our reach in the Foodservice industry."

Mr. Ball adds, "We believe this alliance demonstrates XFormity's and XPIENT's commitment to our customers and to the needs of the industry." "We are excited about integrating with XFormity because it brings together two companies that offer world class solutions to the restaurant industry. As leaders in our respective market segments, it is fitting for XPIENT and XFormity to work together to improve the control and flow of information across all aspects of operating and managing restaurants," says Christopher Sebes, Chief Executive Officer of XPIENT Solutions. "By integrating XFormity's innovative technology with the XPIENT offerings, customers are able to effectively manage both in the restaurant and across the enterprise, and make timely, informed decisions that can effectively impact profitability."

XFormity's hosted enterprise management solutions include business intelligence, balanced scorecard and financial benchmarking toolkits for multi-unit business operations. Serving customers that own and operate over 10,000 locations, XFormity's solutions provide near real-time exception-based management and access to key performance indicators across organizations ranging from single unit operators to large multi-national restaurant operations.

XPIENT's Technology that works - Counter to Enterprise include Point of Sale, Transaction Processing, Loyalty Programs, Kitchen Management, and Enterprise Data and Configuration management, a comprehensive suite of In-store and Enterprise Exception-based tools including video surveillance. XPIENT has installed its suite of applications in more than 20,000 restaurants in North America and the United Kingdom.
